

Module 4 Worksheet
“KEY RESPONSES TO DEMENTIA-RELATED BEHAVIOR”

1. (Screen 2, “Resisting” Topic, Video #1 “Remember the Causes”) Write down three reasons why a person living with dementia might resist a caregiver in a given task.
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)

2. (Screen 2, “Resisting” Topic, Key Responses Pop-up Info) List two ways that you can distract a person with dementia who may be resisting you.
 - a)
 - b)

3. (Screen 2, “Resisting” Topic, Video #2 “Talking with Families” and “Begging, Repeating, and Calling Out” Topic, Video #2 “Talking with Families”) You should inform family members about their loved one’s dementia-related behavior.

True

False

4. (Screen 2, “Resisting” Topic, Video #2 “Talking with Families” and “Begging, Repeating, and Calling Out” Topic, Video #2 “Talking with Families”) What are three important things to remind family members about when discussing their loved one’s dementia-related behavior?
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)

5. (Screen 2, “Begging, Repeating, and Calling Out” Topic, Key Responses Pop-up Info and “Check for Pain” Video) If a person living with dementia is calling out repetitively, you should first:
 - a) Check to see if the person is in pain.
 - b) Try talking or singing with the person to distract them from calling out over and over.
 - c) Call the family to see if they have suggestions for calming the person.

6. (Screen 2, “Kissing and Touching” Topic, Pop-up Info, and Key Responses Pop-up Info) Mr. Tsang has been spending a lot of time alone with Mrs. Slavick. Some of the staff members are uncomfortable with their intimate friendship. What might you say to fellow caregivers to help them feel more at ease with Mr. Tsang’s and Mrs. Slavick’s relationship?
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)

7. (Screen 2, “Hitting, Biting, Scratching, or Pinching” Topic, Pop-up Info, Video #1 “Remember the Causes” and Key Responses Pop-up Info; and “Bothering and Threatening” Topic, Pop-up Info) Give an example of why a person with dementia might be displaying aggressive behavior, like threatening to harm someone or angrily shoving furniture around.
 - a)
 - b)
 - c)