HCI collaborates directly with nationally known Alzheimer's and dementia researchers at organizations such as the Alzheimer's Association, Duke University, Emory University, Michigan State University, NYU School of Medicine, University of Iowa, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, University of South Florida, U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, and National Institutes of Health. Its programs have been recognized by CMS/Medicare, American Health Care Association/National Center for Assisted Living (AHCA/NCAL) to help reduce the off-label use of antipsychotic medications, and the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization (NPHCO).

HCI was founded in 1997 by John Hobday, an educational and instructional design expert, dementia researcher, and software developer. Mr. Hobday serves as HCI's President and CEO.
